LOST OR STOLEN EQUIPMENT REPORT

INSTRUCTIONS: Fill out as much information as possible below and return to our office by mail or fax. If the unit should ever come to our shop for repair service and/or reprogramming, our system will automatically identify the unit as lost or stolen. If you have reported the loss to a police agency, or you are a police agency completing the form, please ensure to fill out the police report information section. We will notify the police agency handling the case if we should ever make contact with the unit. Otherwise, if we don't have police agency information we will contact the owner listed. Please note that we can not add the unit to our database without a serial number!

- A police report has been filed.
- Unit was purchased at Creative Electronics.
- Owner is a customer of Creative Electronics.

We will add any equipment to our database regardless of where it was purchased. This information will just help us maintain accurate records.
